

Hello!

Hi everyone, I'm Fido. I'm Bertie's little brother and I really, really want to be your new school dog. Bertie has told me all about it and how much he misses playing with everyone and it sounds like my kind of place.

My mom (you call her Mrs Burgess) says all new members of staff have to have a trial. Paws crossed I pass! I'm hoping I learn the ropes quickly so I can concentrate on looking cute and having fun. I've had an interview with the Chair of Governors which I think I passed. I made her laugh and smile a lot so that must be a good sign. I've met some of the staff too. Miss Eden got one of my special face licks and Mr Harris says I'm the happiest dog on the planet. Go me! I checked all your classrooms for you during half term and I LOVE Paddy's Patch. It smells of rabbits and foxes and other creatures I'd like to make friends with. There was a pheasant but it flew away without saying hello. How rude!

Things I like:

Tennis balls. These are my favourite things of all time. When I have a tennis ball, nothing else matters and my ears stop working! I'm not allowed them at home because I eat the furry bit but I'm hoping I can charm Mr Manly!

Playing chase. My favourite game! I can play it for hours and I always get away.

Cheese. I'll be your friend for life if you have cheese. Any type, I'm not fussy.

Cuddles. Not a quick hug, a proper wrap your arms around me and let me snuggle up with you cuddle. The longer the better.

Things I'm not keen on:

Being by myself. Apparently that's quite difficult in a school.

Sudden noises that make me jump. That makes me bark - a lot (because I'm scared.)

Heavy rain. No-one likes getting wet.

Can't wait to meet you all!
